(f) Trust. All funds and the titles of all properties acquired by the Association and the proceeds thereof shall be held only for the benefit of the apartment owners and for the purposes herein stated.

4. Insurance. The insurance other than title insurance which shall be carried upon the condominium property shall be governed by the following provisions:

1. Authority to Purchase. All insurance policies upon the condominium property shall be purchased by the Association for the benefit of the Association and the apartment owners and their mortgagees, as their interests may appear, and provision shall be made for the issuance of certificates of mortgagee endorsements to the mortgagees of apartment owners. Such policies and endorsements shall be deposited with the Insurance Trustee. Apartment owners may obtain insurance coverage at their own expense upon their own personal property and for their personal liability and living expense.

.2 Coverage.

- (a) Casualty. All buildings and improvements upon the land and all personal property included in the condominium property shall be insured in an amount equal to the maximum insurable replacement value, excluding foundation and excavation costs, as determined annually by the Board of Directors of the Association. Such coverage shall afford protection against:
- (1) Loss or damage by fire and other hazards covered by a standard extended coverage endorsement.
 - (2) Such other risks as from time to time shall be customarily covered with respect to buildings similar in construction, location and use as the building on the land, including, but not limited to vandalism and malicious mischief.
- (b) Public liability in such amounts and with such coverage as shall be required by the Board of Directors of the Association, including but not limited to hired automobile coverages, and with cross-liability endorsement to cover liabilities of the apartment owners as a group to an apartment owner.
- (c) Workmen's compensation policy to meet the requirements of law.
- .3 Premiums. Premiums upon insurance policies purchased by the Association shall be paid by the Association and charged to the general expense account or to apartment building expense accounts, as shall be appropriate.
- .4 Assured. All insurance policies purchased by the Association shall be for the benefit of the Association and the apartment owners and their mortgagees, as their interests may appear, and shall provide that all proceeds covering casualty losses shall be paid to any bank in Florida with trust powers, as may be approved by the Board of Directors of the Association, which trustee is herein referred to as the Insurance Trustee. The Insurance Trustee shall not be liable for payment of premiums nor for the renewal or the sufficiency of policies nor for the failure to collect any insurance proceeds. The duty of the Insurance Trustee shall be to receive such proceeds as are paid and hold same in trust for the purposes elsewhere stated herein, and for the benefit of the apartment owners and their mortgagees in the following shares but which shares need not be set forth on the records of the Insurance Trustee.

- (a) Common Elements. Proceeds on account of damage to common elements, an undivided share for each apartment owner for each apartment owned by him as set forth in Section 3.2(d)(1).
 - (b) Apartments. Proceeds on account of apartments shall be held in the following undivided shares:
 - (1) Partial destruction when the building is to be restored - for the owners of damaged apartments in proportion to the cost of repairing the damage suffered by each apartment owner.
 - (2) Total destruction of the building or when the building is not to be restored - for owners of all apartments in the building, each owner's share being in proportion to his share in the limited common elements appurtenant to his apartment.
 - (c) Mortgagees. In the event a mortgagee endorsement has been issued as to an apartment, the share of the apartment owner shall be held in trust for the mortgagee and the apartment owner, as their interests may appear.
- .5 Distribution of Proceeds. Proceeds of insurance policies received by the Insurance Trustee shall be distributed to or for the benefit of the beneficial owners in the following manner:
- (a) Expense of the Trust. All expenses of the Insurance Trustee shall be first paid or provision made therefor.
 - (b) Reconstruction or Repair. If the damage for which the proceeds are paid is to be repaired or reconstructed, the remaining proceeds shall be paid to defray the cost thereof as elsewhere provided. Any proceeds remaining after defraying such costs shall be distributed to the beneficial owners, remittance to apartment owners and their mortgagees being payable jointly to them. This is a covenant for the benefit of any mortgagee of an apartment and may be enforced by him.
 - (c) Failure to Reconstruct or Repair. If it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided that the damage for which the proceeds are paid shall not be reconstructed or repaired, the remaining proceeds shall be distributed to the beneficial owners, remittance to apartment owners and their mortgagees being payable jointly to them. This is a covenant for the benefit of any mortgagee of an apartment and may be enforced by him.

(d) Certificate. In making distribution to apartment owners and their mortgagees, the Insurance Trust may rely upon a certificate of the Association as to the names of the apartment owners and their respective shares of the distribution.

.6 Association as Agent. The Association is hereby irrevocably appointed agent for each apartment owner to adjust all claims arising under insurance policies purchased by the Association.

5. Reconstruction or Repair After Casualty.

.1 Determination to Reconstruct or Repair. If any part of the condominium property shall be damaged by casualty, whether or not it shall be reconstructed or repaired shall be determined in the following manner:

(a) Common Element. If the damaged improvement is a common element, the damaged property shall be reconstructed or repaired, unless it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided that the condominium shall be terminated.

(b) Apartment Building.

(1) Partial Destruction. If the damaged improvement is part of the apartment building, the damaged property shall be reconstructed or repaired if any apartment in the building is tenantable.

(2) Total Destruction. If an apartment building is so damaged that no apartment therein is tenantable, the building shall not be reconstructed unless the owners of one-half of the number of apartments in the destroyed building shall so agree in writing within sixty (60) days after the casualty.

(3) Plans and Specifications. Any such reconstruction or repair must be substantially in accordance with the plans and specifications for the original building, or as the building was last constructed, or according to plans approved by the Board of Directors of the Association, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(c) The Condominium. Provided, however, that if 75 per cent of the number of apartments in the apartment building which has been constructed are not tenantable, then the damaged property will not be reconstructed or repaired unless within sixty (60) days after the casualty, the owners of 75 per cent of the apartments which shall have been constructed upon the land agree in writing to such reconstruction or repair.

(d) Certificate. The Insurance Trustee may rely upon a certificate of the Association to determine whether or not the damaged property is to be reconstructed or repaired. In applying the percentage of apartments whose owners must join in an agreement to reconstruct, if the result includes a fraction of an apartment, such fraction shall be construed to mean a whole apartment.

.2 Responsibility. If the damage is only to those parts of one apartment for which the responsibility of maintenance and repair is that of the apartment owner, then the apartment owner shall be responsible for reconstruction or repair after casualty. In all other instances, the responsibility of reconstruction and repair after casualty shall be that of the Association.

.3 Estimates of Costs. Immediately after a casualty causing damage to property for which the Association shall have the responsibility of maintenance and repair, the Association shall obtain reliable and detailed estimates of the cost to place the damaged property in condition as good as that before the casualty, or, in case of an apartment building, in some other condition, if such is required by agreement of the owners of all apartments therein and such is approved by the Board of Directors of the Association.

.4 Assessments. If the proceeds of insurance are not sufficient to defray the estimated costs of reconstruction and repair by the Association, assessments shall be made against the apartment owners who own the damaged property, and against all apartment owners in the case of damage to general common elements, in sufficient amounts to provide funds to pay the estimated costs. If at any time during construction and repair, or upon completion of reconstruction and repair, the funds for the payment of the costs thereof are insufficient, assessments shall be made against the apartment owners who own the damaged property, and against all apartment owners in the case of damage to general common elements, in sufficient amounts to provide funds for the payment of such costs.

.5 Construction Funds. The funds for payment of costs of reconstruction and repair after casualty, which shall consist of proceeds of insurance held by the Insurance Trustee and funds collected by the Association from assessments against apartment owners, shall be disbursed in payment of such costs in the following manner:

- (a) Association. If the amount of the estimated costs of reconstruction and repair of the particular building or other improvement exceeds the total of the annual assessments for common expenses made on account of such property during the year in which the casualty occurred, then the sums paid upon assessments to meet such costs shall be deposited by the Association with the Insurance Trustee. In all other cases the Association shall hold the sums paid upon such assessments and disburse the same in payment of the costs of reconstruction and repair.
- (b) Insurance Trustee. The proceeds of insurance collected on account of casualty, and the sums deposited with the Insurance Trustee by the Association from collections of assessments against apartment owners on account of such casualty, shall constitute a construction fund which shall be disbursed in payment of the costs of reconstruction and repair in the following manner:
- (1) Apartment Owner. The portion of insurance proceeds representing damage for which the responsibility of reconstruction and repair lies with the apartment owner shall be paid by the Insurance Trustee to the apartment owner, or if there is a mortgagee endorsement, then to the apartment owner and the mortgagee jointly, who may use such proceeds as they may be advised.
- (2) Association--Lesser Damage. If the amount of the estimated costs of reconstruction and repair of the building or other improvement which is the responsibility of the Association is less than the total of the annual assessments for common expenses made on account of such property during the year in which the casualty occurred, then the construction fund shall be disbursed in payment of such costs upon the order of the Association, provided, however, that upon request to the Insurance Trustee by a mortgagee which is a beneficiary of an insurance policy, the proceeds of which are included in the construction fund, such fund shall be disbursed in the manner hereafter provided for the reconstruction and repair of major damage.
- (3) Association--Major Damage. If the amount of the estimated costs of reconstruction and repair of the building or other improvement which is the responsibility of the Association is more than the total of the annual assessments for common expenses made on account of such property during the year in which the casualty occurred, then the construction fund shall be disbursed in payment of such costs in the manner required by the Board of Directors of the Association and upon approval of an architect qualified to practice in Florida and employed by the Association to supervise the work.

- (4) Surplus. It shall be presumed that the first moneys disbursed in payment of costs of reconstruction and repair shall be from insurance proceeds; and if there is a balance in a construction fund after payment of all costs of reconstruction and repair for which the fund is established, such balance shall be distributed to the apartment owners who are the beneficial owners of the fund.
- (5) Certificate. Notwithstanding the provisions herein, the Insurance Trustee shall not be required to determine whether or not a disbursement is to be made from the construction fund, nor to determine the payee nor the amount to be paid. Instead, the Insurance Trustee may rely upon a certificate of the Association stating that the sums to be paid are due and properly payable and stating the name of the payee and the amount to be paid; provided that when a mortgagee is herein required to be named as payee, the Insurance Trustee shall also name the mortgagee as payee; and further provided that when the Association, or a mortgagee which is the beneficiary of an insurance policy, the proceeds of which are included in the construction fund, so requires, the approval of an architect named by the Association shall be first obtained by the Association.

6. Taxes and Special Assessments.

1 The assessment of each of the apartments for taxes and special assessments by governmental bodies may be done in the following manner:

(a) Determination of Value. The total value for the tax or assessment roll for the property shall be determined without regard to the apartments against which taxes and assessments ultimately are to be levied.

(b) Allocation of Assessments to Apartments. The assessment for each apartment shall be the apartment's respective share of the assessment of the property.

(c) Certificate. Any tax Assessor may rely upon a Certificate of the Association as to the share of each apartment and upon request or whenever appropriate, the Association shall issue such Certificate.

.2 During any period of time the taxes and special assessments upon the property or any portion thereof are not assessed to apartments as aforesaid, the taxes and assessments not separately assessed to apartments shall be included in the budget of the Association and shall be paid by the Association. The Association shall assess each apartment owner in accordance with the manner hereinabove set forth for allocation of taxes and special assessments by Tax Assessors.

.3 Return for Taxation. No apartment owner shall make a return for taxation which is inconsistent in any manner with the provisions hereof; and if such return is made, it shall be void. The Association shall make a return of all property for taxation in the names of the respective apartment owners returning for each a share determined in the manner hereinabove provided for allocation of the assessments by Tax Assessors.

7. Use Restrictions. The use of the property of the condominium shall be in accordance with the following provisions:

.1 Single Family Residences. The condominium property shall be used only for single family residences and for the furnishing of services and facilities herein provided for the enjoyment of such residences. Each of the apartments for which provision is made by the condominium documents shall be occupied only by a single family as its residence and for no other purpose. See new added language on this page.

.2 Nuisances. No nuisances shall be allowed upon the condominium property, nor any use or practice which is the source of Copies of such regulations and amendments thereto shall be furnished by the Association to all apartment owners and residents of the condominium, upon request.

8. Conveances. In order to assure a community of congenial residents and thus protect the value of the apartments, the sale, ~~XXXXXX~~^{*} and mortgaging of apartments by any owner other than the Developer shall be subject to the following provisions, so long as any apartment building in useful condition exists upon the land:

.1 Sale ~~XXXXXX~~. Upon the conclusion of the sale, the said sum of $100.00 shall be retained by the Association, provided, however, that in the event the sale or transfer is not concluded, the Association shall refund the entire aforesaid sum to the applicant.

 Amended January 24, 1999.

(a) Notice to Association. An apartment owner intending to make a bona fide sale ~~XXXXXX~~ ^{} for a term of over ten (10) months of his apartment, or any interest therein, shall give notice to the Association of such intention, together with the name and address of the intended purchaser ~~XXXXXX~~ ^{}, such other information as the Association may reasonably require, and the terms of the proposed transaction. (See new added language on this page)

(b) Election of Association. Within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice, the Association must either approve the transaction, or furnish a purchaser ~~XXXXXX~~ ^{} approved by the Association who will accept the transaction upon terms as favorable to the seller as the terms stated in the notice, except that a purchaser ~~XXXXXX~~ ^{} furnished by the Association may have not less than thirty (30) days subsequent to the date of approval within which to close the transaction, and except that the approval of a corporation may be conditioned, as elsewhere stated. The approval of the Association shall be in recordable form and shall be delivered to the purchaser ~~XXXXXXXX~~ ^{} and recorded in the Public Records of Dade County, Florida.

.2 Mortgage. No apartment owner may mortgage his apartment or any interest therein without the approval of the Association, except to a bank, life insurance company or a federal savings and loan association. The approval of any other mortgagee may be upon conditions determined by the Association or may be arbitrarily withheld.

3. Liens.

(a) Protection of Property. All liens against an apartment other than those provided for herein and those for permitted mortgages, taxes or special assessments, will be satisfied or otherwise removed within thirty (30) days from the date the lien attaches. All taxes and special assessments upon an apartment shall be paid before becoming delinquent.

(b) Notice of Lien. An apartment owner shall give notice to the Association of every lien upon his apartment, other than for permitted mortgages, taxes and special assessments, within five (5) days after the attaching of the lien.

(c) Notice of Suit. An apartment owner shall give notice to the Association of every suit or other proceeding which may affect the title to his apartment, such notice to be given within five (5) days after the apartment owner receives knowledge thereof.

(d) Failure to comply with this section concerning liens will not affect the validity of any judicial sale.

.4 Judicial Sales. No judicial sale of an apartment nor any interest therein shall be valid unless:

(a) Approval of Association. The sale is to a purchaser approved by the Association, which approval shall be in recordable form and shall be delivered to the purchaser and recorded in the Public Record of Dade County, Florida; or

(b) Public Sale. The sale is a public sale with open bidding.

~~XXXX~~ **
~~XXXX~~ .5 Unauthorized Transactions. Any sale, mortgage ~~XX~~ which is not authorized pursuant to the terms of this Declaration shall be void unless subsequently approved by the Association.

9. Compliance and Default. Each apartment owner shall be governed by and shall comply with the terms of the condominium documents and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, and said documents and regulations as they may be amended from time to time. A default shall entitle the Association or other apartment owners to the following relief:

.1 Legal Proceedings. Failure to comply with any of the terms of the condominium documents and regulations adopted pursuant thereto shall be ground for relief, which relief may include but shall not be limited to an action to recover sums due for damages or injunctive relief, or both, and which actions may be maintained by the Association, or in a proper case by an aggrieved apartment owner.

.2 Negligence. An apartment owner shall be liable for the expense of any maintenance, repair or replacement rendered necessary by his act, neglect or carelessness, or by that of any member of his family or his or their guests, employees, agents or lessees, but only to the extent that such expense is not met by the proceeds of insurance carried by the Association. Such liability shall include any increase in fire insurance rates occasioned by use, misuse, occupancy or abandonment of an apartment or its appurtenances.

.3 Costs and Attorneys' Fees. In any proceeding arising because of an alleged default by an apartment owner, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover the costs of the proceeding and such reasonable attorneys' fees as may be awarded by the Court.

.4 No Waiver of Rights. The failure of the Association or any apartment owner to enforce any covenant, restriction or other provision of the condominium documents shall not constitute a waiver of the right to do so thereafter.

10. Amendment. Except for alterations in the shares of apartment owners in the common elements, for which provision is elsewhere made, the condominium documents may be amended in the following manner:

.1 Declaration of Condominium. Amendments to the Declaration shall be proposed and adopted in the following manner:

(a) Notice. Notice of the subject matter of the proposed amendment shall be included in the notice of any meeting at which a proposed amendment is considered.

(b) Resolution. A resolution adopting a proposed amendment may be proposed by either the Board of Directors of the Association, or by the apartment owners meeting as members of the Association, and after being proposed and approved by one of such bodies, it must be approved by the other. Directors and apartment owners not present at the meetings considering the amendment may express their approval in writing. Such approvals must be by all of the Directors and by not less than 75 per cent of the members of the Association.

(c) Recording. A copy of each amendment shall be certified by the officers of the Association as having been duly adopted and shall be effective when recorded in the Public Records of Dade County, Florida.

.2 Association Charter and By-Laws. The Articles of Incorporation and the By-Laws of the Association shall be amended in the manner provided by such documents.

.3 Proviso. Provided, however, that no amendment of any condominium document shall discriminate against any apartment owner nor against any apartment or class or group of apartments, unless the apartment owners so affected shall consent.

11. Termination. The condominium shall be terminated in the following manner:

.1 Agreement. The termination of the condominium may be effected by unanimous agreement of the apartment owners and first mortgagees, which agreement shall be evidenced by an instrument or instruments executed in the manner required for conveyance of land. The termination shall become effective when such agreement has been recorded in the Public Records of Dade County, Florida.

.2 Destruction. In the event it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided that the condominium property shall not be reconstructed after casualty, the condominium plan of ownership will be terminated and the condominium documents revoked. The determination not to reconstruct after casualty shall be evidenced by a certificate of the Association certifying as to facts effecting the termination, which certificate shall become effective upon being recorded in the Public Records of Dade County, Florida.

.3 Shares of Apartment Owners after Termination. After termination of the condominium, the apartment owners shall own the property as tenants in common in undivided shares and the holders of mortgages and liens against the apartment or apartments formerly owned by such apartment owners shall have mortgages and liens upon the respective undivided shares of the apartment owners. Such undivided shares of the apartment owners shall be as set forth in Exhibit "A". All funds held by the Association and insurance proceeds, if any, shall be and continue to be held jointly for the apartment owners and their first mortgagees in proportion to the amount of the assessments paid by each apartment owner. The costs incurred by the Association in connection with a termination shall be a common expense.

.4 Following termination, the property may be partitioned and sold upon the application of any apartment owner. If the Board of Directors following a termination, by not less than a three-fourths vote, determines to accept an offer for the sale of the property, each apartment owner shall be bound to execute such deeds and other documents reasonably required to effect such sale at such times and in such forms as the Board of Directors directs. In such event, any action for partition or other division of the property shall be held in abeyance pending such sale, and upon the consummation thereof shall be discontinued by all parties thereto.

.5 The members of the Board of Directors acting collectively as agent for all apartment owners shall continue to have such powers as in this section are granted, notwithstanding the fact that the Association itself may be dissolved upon a termination.

12. Covenants Running with the Land. All provisions of the condominium documents shall be construed to be covenants running with the land, and with every part thereof and interest therein, including but not limited to every apartment and the appurtenances thereto; and every apartment owner and claimant of the land or of any part thereof or interest therein, and his heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns shall be bound by all of the provisions of the condominium documents.

13. Statutory Authority. This condominium is hereby created pursuant to the authority to do so established in Chapter 711, Florida Statutes, 1963, and this Declaration is filed in accordance with its provisions. In the event that such law shall be found unconstitutional or be repealed, this Declaration and the condominium form of ownership created hereby shall nevertheless endure and continue until extinguished as provided for herein.

14. Apartment Transfers. Any transfer of an apartment shall include all appurtenances thereto, whether or not specifically described, including but not limited to the apartment owner's share in the common elements, easements, Association membership and interests in funds and assets held by the Association.

15. Severability. The invalidity of any covenant, restriction or other provision of the condominium documents shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions thereof.

16. Provisions Pertaining to Developer. For so long as the Developer continues to own any of the apartments, the following provisions shall be deemed to be in full force and effect, none of which shall be construed so as to relieve Developer from any obligations of an apartment owner to pay assessments as to each apartment owned by it, in accordance with the condominium documents.

.1 For so long as the Developer owns more than five (5) apartments, a majority of the Board of Directors of the Association shall be selected by the Developer, and such members as may be selected by the Developer need not be residents in the building.

.2 The Developer specifically disclaims any intent to have made any warranty or representation in connection with the property or the condominium documents except as specifically set forth therein, and no person shall rely upon any warranty or representation not so specifically made therein. The estimates of common expenses and taxes are deemed accurate, but no warranty or guaranty is made nor intended, nor may one be relied upon.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Developer has executed this Declaration, the day and year first above written.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The Chancellor Hall Apartments were built with a septic tank system. Therefore we are not hooked into the city sewer system, but rely solely on our septic tank system for the removal of the building's human waste.

Over the years we have had to pay for costly emergency service to unclog backups. These backups are caused by unit owners discarding items that do not dissolve in water, Such as:

- | | | |
|-------------------|--|----------|
| 1. Paper Towels | 5. Dust Rags | 9. Wires |
| 2. Facial Tissues | 6. Condoms | |
| 3. Coffee Grinds | 7. Feminine Sanitary Products
(Including Tampons) | |
| 4. Cooking Grease | 8. Baby Diapers | |

Your neighbors on the 1st floor suffer tremendously because of the above items being thrown into the septic system. They get backups in their Apartments which spill onto their floors and ruin their carpeting and tile. In addition to having to bail out the water they suffer the horrible smells and filth associated with the backups.

Furthermore, products such as Drano and Liquid Plumber should be avoided since continued use kills useful bacteria in the septic tank needed to break down waste matter. Please cooperate and do not discard any of the above items in the toilet or drains.
